

WORDOVERME SCRIPTURE COPYRIGHT & ATTRIBUTION POLICY

Purpose

WordOverMe presents personalised Scripture for devotional encouragement. Personalisation is intended solely to help users engage more personally with the biblical text and does not alter the meaning, authority, or integrity of Scripture.

Public Domain Bible Translations

Scripture quotations used on WordOverMe are taken from the following public domain Bible translations:

- King James Version (KJV) – Public Domain.
- American Standard Version (ASV, 1901) – Public Domain.
- World English Bible (WEB) – Public Domain.

Future Bible Translations

Where other Bible translations are used in the future, they will be reproduced under the applicable licence or permission, and any required copyright notices and attributions will be displayed in accordance with the publisher's requirements.

Personalisation

The personalised insertion of a user's name or appropriate pronouns is intended solely as a devotional aid to help users engage more personally with Scripture. It is not intended to create a new Bible translation, replace the original biblical text, or alter its meaning.

Contact

For copyright or attribution enquiries, please contact: admin@wordoverme.com